The official opening ceremony of AAD2016 took place at Air Force Base Waterkloof, the resident venue of the AAD Expo in City of Tshwane on 14 September 2016.

The illustrious affair marked a significant milestone in the history of the AAD Expo. As best stated by Hon Min Mapisa - Nqakula, the South African Minister of Defence and Military Veterans: “For the first time, Africa is proactively showcasing its defence capability to the world.”
HON MINISTER OF DEFENCE & MILITARY VETERANS - MAPISA-NQAKULA

“Global interest in the South African defence industry is growing and there is broad agreement that it is among the best in the world and in the forefront of the development of innovative products.”

SECRETARY FOR DEFENCE - DR. SAM GULUBE

“A key objective of the National Defence Industry Council is to ensure that defence technology serves both defence & society.”

CEO CAASA - LEON DILLMAN

“AAD is a unique event for the general public and has a very good mix of exhibitors and activities that cause a massive migration of people and institutions to Air Force Base Waterkloof. People want to keep up with the new satellite technology, global positioning systems, and latest in radar and radio technologies, because everything is evolving so quickly, which is evidenced by the manner in which unmanned aerial vehicles or drones are being employed, from intelligence and surveillance to border control.”
The 9th edition of the AAD Expo - A premier exhibition of air, land & sea technologies.
