

AAD IS HERE FOR YOU!

WE'RE EMBRACING RESILIENCE DURING THE NATIONAL LOCKDOWN

#AAD2020

With the recent announcement from President Cyril Ramaphosa instating a national lockdown, which commenced on Thursday 26 March at midnight, the Africa Aerospace and Defence has commenced its 21-day lockdown protocol as per government guidelines.

During the lockdown we would like to assure our partners and stakeholders that our business operations continue and the following operational processes are to be noted:

\\ REMOTE WORK

All AAD staff will be working from home. We encourage all our partners to continue communicating via email.

\\ CONTACT DETAILS

Marketing: marketingcomms@aadexpo.co.za

Sales: expodir@aadexpo.co.za

Finance: finance@aadexpo.co.za

Because all AAD Expo operations have always been conducted online, we encourage you to continue doing so. We are making sure that our network can handle the additional demand so that people and businesses can work seamlessly from home and that we continue to deliver on our mandate.

\\ WHATSAPP

We understand that Whatsapp is a commonly used form of communication, however the AAD recommends we restrict using this communications platform for legal or confidential communications. We do not support the conduct of business operations to be done via Whatsapp.

\\ VIRTUAL MEETINGS OR CONFERENCE CALLS

AAD Expo is on Skype @marketingcomms_1

*Please note, Skype calls are by appointment only.

\\ SOCIAL MEDIA

For regular updates please follow or like us on social media

Facebook @africaaerospaceanddefence

Twitter @aadexpo

Instagram @aadexpo

WE CONTINUE TO DO ALL WE CAN TO SUPPORT OUR PARTNERS THROUGH THIS CHALLENGING TIME. WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER AND URGE YOU TO STAY SAFE, STAY ALERT AND TAKE CARE.

PARTNERS:

